

Sailor's Rest, South Dartmouth MA

A shingle-style house designed to reflect the local vernacular of its site.

The house has front and rear porches, a cupola that spreads light into the central hallway, field-stone chimney and gambrel roofs.

Nautical references include teak and holly flooring in the kitchen, and mahogany newel posts in the shape of winches.

Builder Bruce Fryer
Landscape Contractor Trudie LaVigne

