

Fieldways, Carlisle, MA

A new five-bedroom house whose stylistic elements are borrowed from the Arts and Crafts Movement. The project received a BSA/AIA NY Housing Honor Award in 2000.

The interior spaces include a sun-filled conservatory and family room with views of a four-acre woodland clearing. The site development includes a three-car garage, a football field, tennis and basketball courts, as well as a screen house adjacent to the swimming pool.
