

Porches, Concord, MA

A new four-bedroom house located in the heart of Concord village among late nineteenth and early twentieth century houses.

The open main level floor plan allows for casual family living centered around a generous kitchen. The second floor bedrooms are organized around a sun-filled central hallway. Other spaces include a lower level playroom and third floor guest quarters.

Builder Kistler & Knapp Builders
Landscape Design Elizabeth Morss

