

Back Bay Apartment, Boston, MA

Renovation of a three-bedroom apartment in Boston's Back Bay neighborhood.

The design reorganized the kitchen and master suite area and provided new finishes and period details throughout.

The dining room features custom cabinets and fireplace mantle. The living room over doors match the original mantlepiece. The new library cabinetry are premium pine with a stained and waxed finish. The custom wood kitchen cabinets have granite countertops. Marble and glass showers are featured in the bathrooms.
